Pvt. Cornand Jekel, Jr., has just landed safely in England, a part of the American army.

Mrs. Jekel, the former Miss Evelyn Novonty and daughter, Lillie Ann, are making their home in Lancaster, Texas, while Pvt. Jekel is overseas.

Pvt. Frank Jekel, a brother, was inducted into service on the same date as Pvt. Conrad Jekel and is now stationed in California.

LT. ROY ROBERTSON DIES IN AIR BATTLE

Lt. Roy C. Robertson, Jr., 26 year old navigator-pilot on a B-26 Bomber, who was listed as missing since July 8, 1944, was killed in action according to information reaching his parents in Cameron.

Lt. Robertson was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ribertson, Sr., of Cameron and the husband of the former Miss Bonna Booch Dawson of Waco, who is the daughter of Dr. J. M. Dawson, pastor of First Baptist Church there.

Roy Robertson, Sr., is with the McLane Company in Cameron and for almost 6 months has been without word regarding the fate of his son.

The telegram which announced the death of Lt. Robertson was received in Waco Saturday and the information was received here in a War Department message. Lt. Robertson flew the Marauder, fast medium bomber which was employed almost exclusively to destroy communication lines in France, Belgium and the low countries.

Besides his parents in Cameron he is survived by his widow and a daughter. Susanna, six months old, born one week after Lt. Robertson was killed in action over France. One brother, Sgt. Joe L. Robertson is in the army air corps and stationed at Denver, Colorado.

Lt. Robertson graduated cum laude from Baylor University in 1939, was secretary to Dr. A. J. Armstrong at that school, won his commission at Deming, New Mexico and took his combat training at Barksdale Field in Louisana.

Groups of airmen flying the B-26 are rating the Presidential citation for outstanding combat duty in the pre-invasion months.

$2,000 PAID FOR CATTLE KILLED BY POISON

The sum of $2,000 has been paid to H. L. Atkinson and H. L. Yager of Maysfield by L. K. Smoot and wife, Mrs. Julia Smoot of Austin, for cattle recently killed by poison, it was disclosed here Thursday.

Payment for the cattle will in no way affect charges which have been filed in Justice John Thweatt's court at Maysfield upon alleged violation of the law which prohibits putting out poison under given conditions. The case has not been called and may not be called for trial. Usually settlement for damages influences court proceedings.

Mr. and Mrs. Smoot retained lawyears and counsel for Yager and Atkinson were able to effect a settlement on losses sustained when 38 head of cattle died from arsenic poisoning.

MEN HERE WILL BE ASKED TO TAKE JOBS

A direct and personal call on men of Milam County who are beyond age for military service or for other reasons cannot join the armed forces has been sounded. These men, just as patriotic as those in uniform and just as anxious to deal personal blows against the enemy now have an opportunity to strike against the Axis powers. Men of this county are needed in war plants in Texas and adjoining areas, and they are being urged to accept jobs and to assist in speeding production.

The war materiel production situation is serious because of manpower shortage. Fighting forces are using ammunition and equipment at a rate beyond the speed of manufacture.

Victory is being delayed because of these shortages, and it is pointed out that each day of delay costs many lives and extracts a heavy penalty in wounded.

To meet this manpower shortage men of Milam county have been appealed to. Jobs are available in war plants in Amarillo, Fort Worth, the Longview-Texarkana area and elsewhere in Texas, and in New Orleans and Shreveport, La. Full information may be obtained from War Manpower Commission offices or rep resentatives.

"The record of Milam county in sending men to the armed services is brilliant," said Maj. James W. Dewberry of Austin, who has been named Central Texas area representative in this effort to recruit civilian workers. "We feel confident that the county's men not in the armed forces will respond to this call. The need is vital, and the larger and speedier the response the sooner we will win the victory for which we are all working and fighting."

CHURCHILL SAYS U S MEN STOP GERMANS

Wilston Churchill in the British House of Commons Thursday said that American armies had stopped and defeated the Germans on the Western front and that he gave full credit for current military successes to the Americans.

At the time of the German break through only one brigade of British soldiers were engaged in fighting. Mr. Churchill said that for every British soldiers who died on the Western front 60 Americans paid with their lives.

The Red offensive, he said is in accordance with Allied victory plans. Stalin and Churchill are in complete accord in dealing with the problems in the Balkans after the war and President Roosevelt has been kept fully informed, he said. Marshal Tito will be complete master of Yugoslavia and King Peter of Greece will have to agree to a Regency or be plowed under said the Prime Minister.

Mr. Churchill said the British intend to stay in Greece until the present trouble is over and elections can be held.

American losses in December were 74,000 and the German losses were 110,000.

In the face of bitter fighting the Allies were advancing on the Western front. The Third army under Gen. Patton has trapped and is mopping up on Germans in a pocket 12 miles south of Luxembourg.

Rumors were coming out of Russia and Germany that the Red army may be fighting inside of Silesia.

Year Ago Monday It Was 10 Above; Cameron Coldest Spot in Nation

One year ago Monday, January 15, Cameron recorded a temperature of 10 degrees above zero. On that day Cameron was the coldest spot in 10 American states including New York.

On January 15, 1945, a cool norther was blowing here but the temperatures were in the high forties. High temperatures have been prevailing in this area for weeks in what thus far has been the mildest winter in decades.

The lowest temperature recorded thus for in 1944-45 winter season was 27 degrees in early December 1944.

Judge Jeff T. Kemp who keeps a diary telephoned The Herald early Monday to give this interesting information on the weather.

Mrs. Vernon Eanes is recovering nicely from a operation in the Cameron Hospital.

MAN IS BEING CHARGED FOR BREAKING WINDOWS

Monroe Donath of Powers Chapel in Falls county, was being questioned here Saturday morning by officers following his arrest late Friday at his home in connection with damage resulting from breaking stained glass windows in churches at Cameron Burlington, Vogelsang and Rosebud.

Donath recently bought a sandy land farm at Powers Chapel. He had been working for some time in a ship yard in Houston.

Officers here said Donath readily confessed he had broken out the windows but made no satisfactory explanation why he had done so. It appeared that malicious mischief charges might be filed as the law may not permit anything more.

The officers were trying to develop a motive. It was said from other sources that Donath replaces stained glass windows and was said to have a stock of such glass in Caldwell.

On Monday, he told officers, he went to Rosebud to see a Dentist and had a tooth extracted. Later he said he got some wine and got drunk and regained his senses at Caldwell. Late Friday Sheriff Carl Black and Deputy Douglas Barron arrested Donath at his farm.

Estimates placed on the damage to church windows were high. In Cameron Donath said he broke windows at St. Monica's Catholic church and at First Presbyterian church. Later he went to Burlington and with a hammer broke a number of windows in St. Michael's Catholic Church. At Vogelsang windows were broken at the Lutheran church with considerable damage. In Rosebud Donath broke windows in the Methodist Church.

Five of the large windows at the Presbyterian church were shattered. Donath says he is a glass fitter by trade. He has a wife and 3 children.

Shortly before noon Saturday Donath was admited to bail in the sum of $200 which he posted. Sheriff Black said that charges were filed against Donath in the court of Justice Womack Brashear.

It was also said that women at the church in Rosebud saw Donath at the church and were able to identify him as the man who smashed the windows. They reported him to officers.

YOEMEN TAKE 2 GAMES FROM BUCKHOLTS HERE

The Yoemen won both games from Buckholts Friday night at the Gym here, making a clean sweep of the 4 basketball games with the Buckholts teams.

The Yoemen took the main event here 39 to 11. The Yoemens stout defense allowed the Buckholts boys only the most difficult of coffin corner shots. In the last half the Yoemen racked up 24 points, Clore and Gerick finding the range. Raney was the star for Buckholts, a good man who has played good basketball through the entire series.

Saturday the Yoemen were at Hearne for the invitation tournament and played the strong Navasota Rattlers in their first game.

Coach Dick Young took the Yoemen to Hearne early for the games at night. Recently the Yoemen won a high place in the meet at Navasota.

OPA PLANNING U S POST WAR ECONOMY

The Office of Price Administration is working out an orderly plan for reconversion after the war and at the same time is preserving vital materials for the prosecution of the war and underwriting economy for post war days, said W. B. Reynolds, OPA official from Houston.

Safeguarding the future spending power of the people is being achieved by a recoversion program, plus control of vital materials and stabilization of prices. Mr. Reynolds, well informed, gave the Rotarians and guests a graphic picture of OPA. Under plans now being worked out post war America will have consumer goods at ceiling prices and wage standards to bring living conditions to the highest levels in history, plus full employment, he said and proceeded to advance the most logical reasons yet heard on the subject here.

J. M. Boehner, program chairman and a member of the Price Board here, introduced Mr. Reynolds.

Special guests were F. L. Gregory of the local OPA; Miss Susie Kirk and Miss Mildred Michalka of the OPA office here; Richard Bush, John B. Henderson and Dr. T. E. Crump.

LT. GILES C. AVRIETT MISSING, NOW IS SAFE

Lt. Giles C. Avriett, pilot of a Liberator B-24 Bomber, who has been missing in action for several months, has rejoined his command at an English base, it was disclosed Tuesday night January 9, in a telephone message from a crew member who has just reached this country.

Lt. Avriett has been in combat in England with the American air forces for more than a year. He has completed 33 combat missions and wears the coveted decoration of the Distinguished Ffying Cross, ranking award of the Army Air Corps.

Mrs. Jack Lewis, aunt of the flyer, brought a copy of the Austin American to the Herald Wednesday and the following news story which is accompanied by a photo of Lt. Avriett will be of interest here because he was born and reared here the son of Mr. and Mrs. Giles L. Avriett:

There was joy in the household of Mr. and Mrs. Giles Avriett, 2515 Rio Grande street—joy over the safety of their son. Lt. Giles C. Avriett, B-24 Liberator bomber pilot, who had been missing in action several months.

Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. Avriett received a long distance call from Connecticut. The caller was the navigator of Lt. Avriett's plane that was shot down in August.

"He informed us," said Mrs. Avriett happily Wednesday morning, "that the plane made a perfect landing, that none of the crew was injured, and that Giles is now back at his English base. The navigator couldn't tell us any more of the details, but what he told us was enough to make us overjoyed."

The last time Mr. and Mrs. Avriett heard from the 28 year old bomber pilot was in August. At that time he had completed 33 missions and had been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Lt. Avriett, a graduate of the University of Texas, was an accountant in civilian life. He has been in the service since September 1941, and completed his heavy bombardment crew training at the Blythe, Calif., army air base. He has been overseas since last April.

War Surplus Sale is Attracting Many; Much Material Is Bought

The auction sale of government surplus materials which began at 10 a. m. Wednesday at the new warehouse of the Cameron Compress Company on the Buckholts road, was attractive and much material has been purchased.

Gus Grabow of Brenham, well known here is the auctioneer. The sale is a government offer under OPA price levels and many hard to get items are being purchased at ceiling prices.

All money from the sale goes to the government. These sales while small in comparison to high government surpluses are proving beneficial to many who need these critical items.

A forceful reminder of the value of ceiling prices is in every sale. The bidding goes much higher but the auctioneer comes back to the ceiling price bid and whoever happens to be the first to bid such a figure gets the article. Then additional items are sold at ceiling prices.

Thorndale Man Is Promoted

The War Department recently announced the promotion of Keith Davis of Thorndale, to the rank of 1st Lieutenant in the Army Air Forces. Lt. Davis is Civilian Personnel Officer at Godman Field, Ky. GERMANS FACE MAJOR DEBACLE IN THE WEST

The giant Allied vise squeezed tighter on Reich-defending German armies Sunday in operations on the western and eastern fronts.

American First army troops fought stubborn German rearguard action seven miles north of St. Vith, Belgian town four miles from the Reich border, on what was described as the last good Nazi defense line short of the Reich.

To the West, Allied troops overran 20 Belgian towns and slashed the enemy escape route from Houffalize, enemy base located in what once was the center of their collapsed Ardennes salient. In the Houffalize sector, U. S. Third army tanks drove northward to within eight miles of a junction with First army forces slashing down from the northeast. Third army units teaching the Our the river were only three miles from other First army troops.

Russian forces in the East continued their drive through Southern Poland toward the heart of Germany by cutting the railroad between Krakow and Kielce, 62 miles to the northeast. The Nida river last water hurdle before the German frontier, was forced in the same sector, the Soviet communique said.

Another 200 blocks were captured inside Budapest, giving the Russians possession of almost 88 percent of the rubbled Hungarian capital.

U S FLEET ATTACKING OFF COAST OF INDO CHINA

United States naval forces Friday were attacking a Japanese convoy off the coast of Indo China and at the same time carrier based planes were sweeping the Island of Formosa with fire and destruction.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz late Thursday issued a statement from his headquarters in Pearl Harbor, saying that the task force under Admiral Halsey was making the attack.

News commentators said that it was presumed that the Japs were attempting to reinforce their armies on Luzon where General Douglas MacArthur had made new landings.

There were no official details. It marked the first time a naval task force has penetrated to the continent of Asia and in the words of one correspondent "our ships are cruising in and out of the buck teeth of Hirohito."

While no mention was made of the Jap navy it was certain that a considerable force of war ships were in the Jap convoy and Admiral Halsey may be engaged in another major sea battle.

Invasion forces on Luzon were encountering their first serious resistance from the Japs in a nine mile thrust into the interior in the direction of Manila.

General George Patton's Third American army had caved in the Bastogne box. A British army had raced 10 miles behind the German forces now evacuating the Belgium sailent.

The northwestern enemy anchor of Laroche fell along with 15 towns and the Third U. S. Army kicked off in a surprise attack that caved in strong box positions southeast of Bastogne and sent thousands of Germans fleeing through the woods of Luxembourg.

Waste Paper Drive Yields Old Copy of The Cameron Herald

Currently many relic copies of newspapers and magazines are finding their way to the scrap paper heap for war use. Recently after a car load of paper had been delivered to Waco from Cameron someone observed that a very old copy of The Herald was in the waste and retrieved it.

J. F. Brown of Cameron who was visiting in Waco at the time obtained the copy and brought it back to the city. It was in turn brought to The Herald by Mrs. Penn Wolf, daughter of Mr. Brown.

The issue is dated December 28, 1899, and was addressed to R. M. Campbell. The copy is an 8 page paper well filled with advertising of that day. Interesting enough is a Bryant & Bond ad displaying a Harwood sewing machine for $18.00. P. O. Adams and Company had just announced a prize award, the judges being John B. Wolf, J. A. Huffman, R. P. Lankford and M. K. Lott. The number was drawn by Lilla Smith who is now Mrs. Rush Thomas.

The issue contained a number of comments on the formal opening of the campaign of the late T. S. Henderson for Congress, running against Bob Henry of Waco. Mr. Henderson, among other things advanced revision of the Tariff and spoke out to invoke the Interstate Commerce Clause of the Constitution against monopolies. He criticised Democratic statesmen for their lack of outlook, a policy which he said would always doom the Demorcatic party to a minority role in American affairs.

The Herald at that time was published by the late Oscar F. McAnally. In the issue are social items of weddings of prominent people here and at Rockdale.

GERMANS RETREAT ON THE WESTERN FRONT

Warsaw, devastated capital of Poland and since 1939, held by the Germans, has fallen to the Red Army.

At noon Wednesday Joseph Stalin, Russian dictator, announced the capture of the Polish capital. Later the German government announced that the city had been taken by the Red Army.

Warsaw has been under siege by the Red Army since last fall. Among all the European capitals Warsaw has the bloodiest history for it was the first great city to feel the weight of German bombs when Adolph Hitler sent his armies into that country to touch off the conflagragation of a world war in 1939.

Few details were avilable on the momentous announcement. It was regarded as indicative of the strength of the new Russian winter offensive.

The Germans were in retreat on the Western front as their arms were meeting serious reverses in the east.

With the stepped up fighting the American First Army under General Courtney Hodges and the Third under General George Patton have merged to trap the Germans and to seal all hope of the Belgium break through.

With clearing weather 750 bombers and 340 fighter planes were over vital targets in Germany and 80 B-29 bombers were over Formosa off the coast of China.

Invasion forces on Luzon were making progress.

Word has been received by Mrs. C. B. Hewitt, the former Miss Ruth Hobson of Cameron, of the promotion of her husband, Clarence B. Hewitt, from 1st. Lt. to Captain. Captain Hewitt is in the Field Aritllery and is at present in the 9th Army somewhere in Germany.

Friends here received word from Pfc. Grady Coker that he has arrived safely in England. Pfc. Coker is a Yoe High school graduate and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Coker of Ben Arnold.

Mrs. John Zalesky is in the Newton Memorial Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Will Lake of Rt. 4, Cameron is resting well following an operation in the Newton Memorial Hospital.

Joe David, Jr., is recovering from an appendictomy in the Newton Memorial Hospital.

You're my kind... Have a Coca-Cola

...or allies enjoy a friendly pause

There's a friendly phrase that speaks the allied language. It's Have a Coke. Friendliness enters the picture when ice-cold Coca-Cola appears. Over frosty bottles of ice-cold Coke, minds meet and hearts are closer together. It's a happy custom that's spreading 'round the globe. Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become an everyday high-sign of friendliness among people of good will.

Spencer Tracy Plays His Greatest Role In "Seventh Cross"

If we need say anything more to recommend "The Seventh Cross," the exciting new Metro-Glodwyn-Mayer picture which opens Thursday at the Cameron Theatre than that Spencer Tracy is its star, this corner announces that Tracy is greater even than he has been in any of his many outstanding hits: "A Guy Named Joe," "Keeper of the Flame," "Boys Town," "Captains Courageous" and all the rest.

Indeed, this remarkable actor gives another topnotch, prize-winning performance in "The Seventh Cross," the story of seven prisoners, in "protective custody," who escape from a German concentration camp one morning in 1936.

Tracy plays George Heisler, the only one to make good his escape, who, aided by loyal friends, including a lovely girl (played by Signe Hasso,) makes good his escape with a promise to fight on against the Nazi tyranny.

"The Seventh Cross" is based on the best-seller novel of the same name by Anna Seghers and has been brought to the screen under the outstanding dirction of Fred Zinnemann and production supervision of Pandro S. Berman.

Every member of the large cast is a veteran actor and each makes you live his or her role as you watch, deeply absorbed, the story of "The Seventh Cross."

Miss Hasso appears opposite Tracy and other leading roles are in the highly capable hands of Hume Cronyn, Jessica Tandy, Agnes Morehead, Herbert Rudley, Felix Bressart, Ray Collins, Alexander Granach, George Zucco and Katherine Locke, to name just a few.

Tracy's memorable perfomance is matched by the picture and everyone and everything connected with it. It is a picture you must see.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 21.

The Golden Text is: "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent." (John 17:3.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son." (I John 5:11.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus said substantially, 'He that believeth in me shall not see death.' That is, he who perceives the true idea of Life loses his belief in death. He who has the true idea of good loses all sense of evil, and by reason of this is being ushered into the undying realities of Spirit."

River Hub, Strasbourg, Noted for Goose Livers

A city of 193,000 people before the war, combining French and German influences, Strasbourg is a rail center on the French side of the Rhine. It lies at the head of navigation on that great river highway. The city is at the Rhine end of the Rhine-Rhone canal. Crossing the Rhine, highways from Strasbourg run north to Karlsruh and the northern Rhineland, south to Freiburg, and east through the Black forest to Stuttgart and Nurnberg.

The Rhine is a first-class trade artery only to Mannheim, but is navigable to Strasbourg. A million and a half tons of shipping were landed annually at Strasbourg's Rhine river port in prewar years, mostly from barges towed up the river.

Strasbourg is noted for its cathedral, with a rose window 50 feet in diameter; for its university, where Goethe studied; and for its pate de foie gras (goose-livers). The goose is the "national bird" of Strasbourg, represented in china replicas in many shop windows. The preparation of pate de foie gras dates from 1762, when the delicacy was devised by one Close, cook to the Marechal de Conde, then residing in Strasbourg. This product later made its way to most civilized countries, the annual output exceeding a half million dollars in value.

Diapers Go to War

Three thousand diapers are used every month in a war plant to clean and polish glass lenses for army binoculars and tank telescopes. Because they are absorbent and leave no lint, diapers are ideal for removing the tinest specks that might mar the vision of soldiers using the binoculars and telescopes. In the cleaning operation, one diaper is used to rub the lens after it has been dipped into a soapy solution, a second to dry it.

Starrett Rides To Town Soon

Exposing the sinister operations of a gang of saboteurs in a typical mid-western community, Columbia Pictures "Cyclone Prairie Rangers," opening at the Milam Theatre on Friday and Saturday starring Charles Starrett in the role of cowboy-sleuth, is said to be a modern, up-to-the-minute drama of the great open spaces.

Written by Elizabeth Beecher and produced by Jack Fier, the picture, we hear, is a timely robust, fast-action Western with Charles Starrett playing a rodeo star on a bond-selling tour who suddenly gets a special assignment from Washington to track down a group of crop and livestock racketeers.

Of special interest is the appearance of Jimmy Davis, popular Governor of Louisiana. Jimmy is known as the Jerome Kern of the range, having composed such twangy classics as "Nobody's Darlin'" and "You Are My Sunshine." He plays Starretts' pal, and gits time for some singin'.

Potato Storage

The home garden potato crop may be kept in any number of ways, such as a windowed corner of the basement partitioned off for temperature regulation and darkened, a garage, a closet or unheated room in the house, or in a partly buried barrel covered over with straw or leaves and soil. Boxes and barrels are better than baskets for stored potatoes, since they help to keep down shriveling and protect them better against light, which causes green spots.

Dicing Old Game

The introduction of dice and dicing has been ascribed to many men, but with most assurance to Psalmedes of Greece, who is said to have initiated this type of gaming in 1244 B C. There is no question that the games played with dice are about the simplest games of chance known, and the most universal. The dice found in Thebes, which were made 3,000 years ago, differ in no way from the six-sided cubes of today, with the dots on each side ranging from 1 to 6.

Dicing means the throwing of dice from a cup. In the game of craps, they are thrown by hand. Mostly they are thrown upon a table, although "army" rules have always required that the dice first hit a wall or blanket. In England it was formerly the custom to throw the dice into a bowl. In Hieronymous, a game devised to cheat sharpers, the dice were placed upon a strip around a bowl, which was twirled around, with the result that the dice tumbled into it.

Synthetic Rubber

Synthetic rubber is made of two chemicals that are comparatively new industrial materials, one is a gas, called butadiene made from either petroleum or alcohol and a liquid called styrene made from coal tar. These two materials put together coagulate into a thick milky white mass that looks a little like the sap that comes from the natural rubber tree, called latex. Soap emulsifies the two liquids, and this makes it possible for the various molecules to join themselves (chemists call this polymerizing) into the big molecules that are synthetic rubber.

Commissioners to Haul Cans For War Salvage Material

Our commissioners have agreed to deliver our tin cans in Hearne as an aid to our effort.

It must be understood the commissioners are not going about to gather the cans. It is up to us to demonstrate our patriotism by bringing the cans to or near our county barns, after cleaning them, both ends removed, doubled back inside the can, and flattened with the foot.

The pure tin from two tin cans is necessary to make the LITTLE SYRETTE which contains enough medicine to save a boy's life, who might otherwise die from shock. Records of the first war show that seven deaths out of ten were due to shock. Medical science has found this answer. It is up to us to back our doctors and the boys on the front lines.

In Mr. Stidham's precinct bring your tin cans to the Coca-Cola plant.

S. E. BROGDON,
Chairman, Milam County
Salvage Committee.

AS MONKEY SEES IT
(Author Unknown)

Three monkeys sat in a cocoanut tree
Discussing things as they're said to be.
Said one to the others: "Now listen, you two,
There's a certain rumor that can't be true:
That man descended from our noble race . . .
The very idea; It's a dire disgrace.
No monkey ever deserted his wife,
Starved her baby, or ruined her life.
And you've never known a mother monk
To leave her babies with others to bunk,
Or passed them along from one to another
Till they scarcely know who is their mother.
And, another thing! You'll never see
A monk build a fence around a cocoanut tree,
Forbidding all other monks a taste,
And let the cocoanuts go to waste.
Why, if I put a fence around this tree
Starvation would force you to steal from me.
Here's another thing a monk won't do:
Go out at night and get on a stew;
Or use a gun, or club, or knife
To take another monkey's life.
Yes, man DESCENDED—the ornery cuss!
But, Brothers, he didnt descend from us."

12 JAP TROOP SHIPS SUNK IN SEA FIGHT

In the continuing battle off the coast of Indo China where a U. S. task force under Admiral Halsey intercepted a Jap convoy Thursday, 12 transports laden with troops have been sent to the bottom and the Japs have lost heavily in this latest disaster trying to reinforce their army on Luzon.

In addition to the 12 troop laden ships, at least one cruiser and several destroyers have been sent to the bottom. In all 25 ships are said to have been sunk up to noon Saturday.

A Tokyo broadcast said the British fleet was taking part in the battle.

Manila has been heavily bombed as the American army under General Douglas MacArthur made progress in the invasion.

The Japs said they will defend Manila to the last.

Unconfirmed German reports said that the Red army has begun an offensive from Poland.

The Allies were gaining slowly in the western front.

Jim Thomas Again Given Death for Dr. Hunt Slaying

Lamesa—Jim Thomas, 50 year old paroled convict, was convicted today a second time of murdering Dr. Roy E. Hunt of Littlefield and also for a second time, a jury decided his punishment should be death.

After today's verdict was reported at 11:45 a. m. Thomas' counsel filed with Special District Judge J. E. Garland, before whom the case was heard, a motion for still a third trial.

A jury at Plainview first convicted Thomas, who was arrested Oct. 27, 1943, a day after the bodies of Dr. and Mrs. Hunt were found mutilated and bound in bed at their residence. He was tried only in the death of Dr. Hunt. He won a re-trial because of a jury irregularity and the case was brought here on a change of venue.

The condemned man pleaded innocent when the indictment charging murder was read Tuesday, and once during the trial sought unsuccessfully to obtain an instructed verdict for acquittal. The jury received the case Thursday night.

PLAN NOW to Enjoy the full Benefits of Your Future ELECTRIC SERVICE

WHILE you're working toward winning the war today . . . helping to produce the materials needed for Victory, buying War Bonds, supporting the various wartime civic activities . . . you're naturally planning for the better living that Victory will bring. And you'll want your home to provide the full benefits of modern electric service. To be assured of this you'll need to include in your plans for building or remodeling provision for Adequate Wiring, which means: Enough outlets in every room for present and anticipated appliance and lighting needs; enough circuits to distribute the electric load properly; adequate protection for all circuits; and all wiring installed in accordance with high standards.

Adequate Wiring costs very little more than poor wiring and is your assurance of efficient operation of your present electrical appliances, plus the new ones to be available when Victory is won.

Plan now for equipping your home with better wiring through your continued purchases of War Bonds . . . you'll be glad you did — for better wiring means better living in the peacetime world of tomorrow!

"SERVANTS' ENTRANCE"

Plan now to have plenty of outlets in your post-war home for "plugging in" electrical appliances wherever they are needed.

Lifers Guinea Pigs In Plague Battle

Convicts Used in Fight on Tropical Diseases.

TRENTON, N. J.—Behind the gray walls of the sprawling state prison here, 200 convicts are paying off a debt to society by risking possible death in a grim, patriotic fight to unearth a preventive against tropical diseases. Most are lifers and all are long-time prisoners.

If they win, and their 1,000 fellow inmates are praying that they do, their only reward will be the knowledge that they helped the war effort by wiping out plagues which menace the health of fighting men on nearly all fronts.

Seventy of the 200 volunteers already have suffered intensely in the experiments undertaken by the army service forces and the Rockefeller institute for medical research.

The results of the research in the three-city-block prison are a closely guarded secret. But prison officials make no bones of their pride in the men. Only a few years ago bloody revolts and escapades rocked the prison's 10 buildings. But the setting was different when the army called for volunteers from among the lifers and other long-termers, and these men volunteered.

Then Dr. John Paul, professor of medicine at Yale university, and Maj. Albert B. Sabin, of the army service forces, and their staffs went to work on the human "guinea pigs."

Their aim was not a cure for the diseases. The army wanted its men immunized against the maladies which reduce ranks, put soldiers in beds, retard campaigns and sometimes lose wars.

These men were reputedly shot with malaria and dysentery germs. They were subjected to projects so secret that neither Warden Ellis nor the researchers would talk about experiments, results and progress.

Ellis admitted nearly all the volunteers suffered intensely, but they smiled through their ordeals. Many spent 10 agonizing days in bed, wracked by disease, and now are convalescing satisfactorily.

Chiggers, We Are Told, Also Prefer Blondes

LINCOLN, NEB. — The ubiquitous chigger, like gentlemen of two decades ago, prefers blondes, and has an unerring ability to locate same.

The pesky bugs seek and find thin-skinned victims, according to Extension Entymologist Don B. Whelan of the state agricultural college, and their keen sense of location leads them directly to the most likely source of food.

The majority of people fail to realize they have provided feeding ground until several hours after the unhappy event, he said, when small, red, itchy spots appear.

Whelan suggested a film of sulphur dust around the ankles, on the clothing, and at all likely points of contact to discourage the foragers' appetites. After exposure to the tiny tormentors, a drop of fly-spray on each bite will tend to kill the chiggers and soothe the itching, he said.

A warm, soapy bath was next on the entymologist's list of recommendations for scratching sufferers.

"If they have used sulphur on their skins, they'll need it," he commented, "and if they haven't, they'll need it even more."

Scoops Tree Leaves to Be Used as Luck Tokens

WITH ALLIED AIR FORCES ATTACKING SOUTHERN FRANCE.—Flying Frenchmen of the famous Lafayette escadrille and sister squadrons unleashed their Thunderbolts over their native land, supporting the Allied sea and air borne invasion which struck France's southern shore.

Each pilot of the P-47s with Tricolors painted on the tails carried a leaf from a tree in France next to his heart as he flew.

The French major who commands a fighter-bomber group supplied the leaves. He was strafing a train over France not long ago and swept so low he hit a tree. But the powerful Thunderbolt plowed on through and brought him back—with a big bunch of leaves decorating his plane. He divided them among his fellow pilots.

Miss Frances Nabours Bride of Kinnard Griffin In Ceremony Sunday, January 14, 1945, in Home Of Mr. and Mrs. John House in Salem Community

A home wedding of outstanding social and historical interest Sunday, January 14, 1945, united in marriage Miss Frances Nabours and Kinnard Griffin.

The ceremony of quiet charm and simplicity was performed by Rev. Leon Varpohl, Baptist minister of Troy at 9:30 a. m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John House, uncle and aunt of the bride. The home, a historic old mansion in the Salem community built by the late W. S. G. Wilson was radiant with hospitality and memories of other nuptials in years gone by.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nabours, was beautiful in a dress-makers suit of biege with black accessories. Her corsage was of Camelia and Carnations. She wore a locket of cross design belonging to her Grandmother Fisher of her mother's family and which was also worn by her sister, Mrs. Robert W. Mitchell at her wedding. She carried a lace handkerchief sent by her sister in law, Mrs. Bob H. Nabours from Montreal, Canada.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffin of Yarrellton, wore a handsome suit of grey pin stripe. He approached the altar with his best man, Sgt. John Fuller in the uniform of the United States Army.

The bride, attended by her sister, Miss Hortense Nabours as Maid of Honor, was preceded to the living room of the home by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nabours. Flowers in tall baskets flanked the improvised altar with a background of greenery. The wedding music was given by Mrs. Francis Cox. The single ring ceremony was beautiful and impressive as Rev. Varpohl spoke from the Bible.

Immediately following the ceremony and after congratulations and well wishes from friends and relatives refreshments featured the reception. The table was decorated with lace cloth over green satin. The center piece was of carnations in a crystal bowl with lovely pink candles. A two tiered wedding cake was decorated in pink and green and supported a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Albert Matula, aunt of the bride poured coffee and Miss Jerusha Rogers, cousin of the bride, cut and served the cake. Miss Mary Lou Folshinsky of Bryan and Mrs. Lee Moran, assisted in serving.

Earlier in the morning a wedding breakfast with southern menu was served in the home to the bride and groom in the spacious and antiquely furnished dining room.

The home, a sweeping two story, overlooking the broad acres, was once the home of the late W. S. G. Wilson and Mrs. Lizzie Wilson. The land on which it was built was purchased more than a hundred years ago by the late William Wilson and later inherited by his son W. S. G. Wilson, better known as Goodhue Wilson. Before her marriage Mrs. Wilson was the former Miss Lizzie Ledbetter whose family is prominent in the history of the county. Construction was begun on this home in 1853 and it was finished in 1856 but was not occupied for three years and until 1859, when the late Goodhue Wilson brought his bride to the mansion. The framing of the home is of oak cut from native timber and finished in a saw mill which was owned by the Wilson family and situated in Cameron on the site now occupied by the Cameron Ice & Cold Storage Company. Materials for the walls and interior were freighted in by ox team from Houston and all of the mill work was done locally. Not far away is the historic family burial ground where sleep the early pioneer, William Wilson and his wife. The late Goodhue Wilson, rich land owner, was originally buried in the family plot near Little River, the valley skirting the Wilson lands. Before her death the late Mrs. Lizzie B. Wilson directed the removal of the body of her husband to the Salem cemetery and both are buried there. Mrs. Wilson built the Salem church and dedicated it to the community. Her benefactions were large, including Wilson-Ledbetter Park to the City of Cameron.

Early weddings held in the home were those of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Scarbrough whose fortune in later years founded the Scarbrough department store in Austin. In the early days Mr. Scarbrough founded the mercantile firm of E. M. Scarbrough in Rockdale. Mrs. Scarbrough was before her marriage Miss Ada Ledbetter, a sister of Mrs. Wilson. Another wedding was that of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Powell. He was a pioneer doctor at Maysfield and Mrs. Powell was a twin sister of Mrs. Wilson. The last wedding preceding that of Francis Nabours and Kinnard Griffin was the marriage of Miss Ida Porter who married Edward Temple, a Santa Fe railroad official and now deceased. This wedding occured in 1902.

Out of town relatives attending the Nabours-Griffin wedding were:

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Davis and daughter Miss Zoe Davis, Ft. Worth, Mr. Davis being a widely known civil engineer and whose father, Floyd Davis was one of the first white children born in the city of Cameron; Mrs. Al Flint of Temple, Mrs. Bart Matthews and daughter, Ellie, of Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Mott Terry of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Massengale of McGregor.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin, after a short wedding trip, will be at their home in Yarrellton where the groom is engaged in farming and stock raising.

The wedding guest book, handsome white laid broche was signed by 47 relatives and close personal friends. Preceding the signatures is a verse by William Shakespeare: "The best of happiness, honor and fortune, keep with you." Those who signed were:

Mrs. H. W. Massengale, Mrs. C. M. Davis and Mrs. Pearl House, aunts of the bride; Zoe Davis, C. M. Davis, J. W. House, LeRoy Messengale, Hallie Massengale, Rev. and Mrs. Leon Varpohl, Ellie Matthews, Mrs. Bart Matthews, Mrs. Jackie Clark, Jenny Akers, Mrs. LaNelle Gould, Mrs. Gene Moran, Maxine Akers, Mrs. Bettie Griffin, mother of the groom; Frank Griffin, father of the groom; Paul Nabours, Mrs. Homer Nabours, mother of the bride; Homer Nabours, father of the bride; Bob Mitchell, Katie Nisbett, Jurusha Rogers, H. The FUTURE IS BRIGHTER

Heartening indeed is the rsponse to the 6th War Loan, not only in Milam county but over the nation.

The lessons of World War 1 may now be our salvation. The accumulation of investments in bond buying by the people brings a bright outlook for the future as we begin the New Year.

Aside from the first demand that our efforts be directed to winning the war, we can look confidently to to-morrow, a day when we can have more of the things we want and need—to take up where we left off. Let's all remember we are responsible for the kind of world our fighting men will come back to.

YOEMEN WIN HEARNE TOURNAMENT SATURDAY

Coach Dick Young's fast stepping basketball team was hitting its stride and Saturday had advanced to new competative circles by winning the Hearne invitation tournament.

Of especial interest in the outcome of the tourament is that in the final games the Yoemen defeated Rockdale. The Tiger team is one of the strongest in Central Texas. The Yoemen were hard put to nose out the Tigers, having to come from behind 4 times to beat Rockdale but in that final effort the Tigers fell and the Yoemen brought home the cup, a mangnificent trophy to be added to the growing number that decorate the big case at the high school.

Coach Young was very proud of his boys and all Cameron was hepping to the possibilities for total season play.

Saturday the Yoemen won the first place trophy at the Hearne basketball tournament. Eight teams were represented. In winning the Yoemen had to eliminate three powerful clubs. The Yoemen completely outclassed the Navasota Rattlers 34 to 19 in the first round of elimination. In the second game the stout Yoemen defense throttled A & M Consolidated to six free throws. The little Aggies were unable to score a single field goal.

The third and final game was a thriller, keeping the fans on their feet, yelling themselves hoarse. The Yoemen came from behind 4 times to prove their metal. Rockdale has a fine team, sparked by Jones a superb shooter.

Cameron used only 6 men, all of whom were stars in their own department of the game. They were Alvin Gerick, Jimmy Marek, Harold Clore, Billy Joe Eanes, Gillis Graham and Howard Kennedy.

The fans, opponent coaches, officals and players all highly praised the fine team work of the Yoemen, and their skill.

Teams competing were: Hearne, Franklin, Navasota, Rosebud, Rockdale, Calvert, A & M Consolidated and Cameron.

The four teams emerging were Cameron, Rockdale, A & M Consolidated and Calvert.

New-Type Rockets Fired at Germans

Use High-Velocity Missile Developed by Navy.

WITH UNITED STATES NINTH AIR FORCE, FRANCE.—American fighter-bombers equipped with rockets that are in action in western Europe are using a new type of missile that offers the great advantage of a high ratio of fire control for the pilot.

Maj. Gen. Elwood R. Quesada, chief of the Ninth tactical air command, announcing the use of the high-velocity rocket by some Thunderbolt squadrons, said:

"It implements aircraft with a new weapon of tremendous possibilities. Further, it is very significant that the Thunderbolts are still able to bomb, machine-gun and fly as well with rockets as without.

"Their first use in France against enemy armor fully confirmed our high expectations and will undoubtedly lead to the increased use of this weapon."

General Quesada said that the new rocket had been developed by the United States navy, adding that "the navy did a better job on rockets than we."

"The power for the rockets is difficult to manufacture," he said, "and this held up their use until some weeks ago, when the first rocket-equipped planes were thrown in in close support of ground forces."

News of these rockets has been released now that several such planes have fallen into German hands.

German Officer Learns About Allied Advance

ARRAS, FRANCE. — A stalwart German lieutenant was deeply chagrined recently when a 16-year-oid French Maquisard, prodding him with a rifle, led him into a British field headquarters near the Belgian frontier.

"It is useless to take me prisoner," he told the British. "I will be free again in one hour. You are surrounded. The war is over."

With a side wink a British officer brought out an unmarked map and said gravely, "This is serious. We did not know we were surrounded. Show us."

The German captive bent over the map and pointed along the coast in the north and along the roads to the south.

The British officer then showed him a battle chart marked with the latest developments and told him something about the number of Allied tanks, troops and guns storming across France to Begium.

The German gaped incredulously.

"If what you say is true, then the war is indeed over—for us," he said glumly.

Star of German Films Blackballed in Sweden

STOCKHOLM. — Zarah Leander, Swedish actress of the German film industry, announced today she would not appear in the Karl Gerhard revue in Stockholm this fall because of the strong protests of Danish and Norwegian refugee artists in Sweden.

She had already signed a contract with Gerhard, noted Swedish producer and notably pro-Allied.

Beauteous Zarah even got in trouble with the Nazis after she signed the contract—they banned all her recordings from Germany.

'Thought Capsules' Are Now Aiding Alcoholics

NEW YORK. — "Thought capsules" are contributing to rehabilitation of alcoholics, says Edward McGodrick, director of the bureau of alcoholic therapy.

Of the 17 "thought capsules" this is typical:

"I know I must abstain from alcohol, not merely for the sake of others, but first and foremost for my own self-esteem. . . . An alcoholic is made, not born. . . . I do not need alcohol. . . . I know from my own personal experience that drinking never solved a problem for me."

GI Art Professor Will Help Restore Cassino

ST. PAUL, MINN. — After the war, Pvt. Frank Kacmarcick, 25, of North St. Paul, hopes to take a hand toward restoration of masterpieces of Beuron liturgical art, destroyed in the bombing of Monte Cassino.

Private Kacmarcick is a graduate of Minneapolis school of art, and expects to return after the war to St. John's university, Collegeville, Minn., where he taught art for five years. He has specialized in the study of Beuron art, so called because it originated in the Beuron Benedictine abbey in Germany.

Postal Money Order Is Not Legal Tender

NEW BEDFORD, MASS. — A postoffice money order is not legal tender in payment of debt, a district court special justice ruled recently.

Justice George H. Potter, of the third Bristol district court, made the ruling in granting an eviction order for non-payment of a tenant's rent.

Unruly Kids May Be Just Hungry

Educators Find Out What Makes American Child 'Act That Way.'

CHICAGO. — The youngster who throws spitballs in school, scrawls bad words on the walls or biffs other kids on the nose more likely than not is hungry, or tired out, or unloved.

It doesn't follow, says Dr. Daniel A. Prescott, that he's just plain ornery, or incorrigible, or dumb. Dr. Prescott of the University of Chicago's collaboration center on human development and education, is one of a group of educators devoted to finding out what makes the American child tick.

It's important, he said, that teachers see a child's present actions as based on his past experiences, shaped by his present circumstances and influenced by his desires and hopes for the future.

Dr. Prescott reported recently on the work of a special division set up several years ago at the University of Chicago by the commission on teacher education to put together material gleaned over the last 15 years by scientific groups which had been studying individual aspects of child development and behavior.

Commission Findings.

Representatives from 20 colleges and universities and 14 groups of school systems were sent to Chicago to do this job. What Dr. Prescott said was an advance view of the commission's findings, to be published soon.

"We believe that the task that lies ahead is primarily one of training teachers to make sound judgments about children," he said.

Findings of the group include the following:

1. Children are often expected or required to learn things they are not ready to learn, or that they can't see any reason for learning. Children's interests and tasks should be related to maturity more closely than to chronological age.

The reason, Dr. Prescott explained, that two-thirds of those failing to learn to read in the first grade are boys is that it takes boys longer to grow from birth to maturity than girls. Girls at the age of 6 are where boys are at 7 and more likely to be ready for reading.

2. Children often are expected, or even required, to behave in ways unreasonable to expect in view of their development, family background or physical condition.

Some Teachers Blamed.

3. Many teachers often do not fully accept and respect each child as a person and often actually dislike or neglect certain youngsters. Many teachers make no attempt to see that the child is liked by others, or belongs to a group. Thus some children for years may remain lonely or rejected in a class group.

4. The behavior of a child often is not evaluated in terms of the factors that caused it, and is controlled by means that humiliate him before his classmates (such as standing in a corner), demean him in his own eyes, repress valuable interest and curiosity or develop a sense of being unfairly treated.

5. Problems with which children may be struggling often aren't noticed. Children with chronic infection, or correctible physical handicaps, with limited mental abilities, severe emotional maladjustments or personality problems are not given proper attention.

Nazis Roll Bomb Like Bowling Ball at Yanks

WITH THE SEVENTH ARMY IN SOUTH FRANCE. — The Germans should know by this time that they can't knock the Seventh army down like tenpins but—

On the Nice front they tried a weapon which consisted of a teller mine with a time fuse inside a round, oversized wooden casing that resembled a bowling ball.

On several occasions they tried rolling these balls down on the well-paved, smooth mountain roads towards the advancing Americans. On each occasion the balls bounced harmlessly into the shrubbery.

Set 'em up in the other alley, Adolf.

Quinine Substitute Is Praised by Army Medics

WASHINGTON.—The army medical department has come out flatly and rated atabrine, the war-developed substitute for quinine, as "even better" than quinine in the suppression and treatment of malaria.

It was the army's first unqualified statement with respect to the effectiveness of the synthetic drug. It came into wide use in the armed forces after Japanese conquests in the Dutch East Indies had cut off most of our quinine supply.

Some 6,000 Alien Sailors Have Deserted in U. S.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — About 6,000 alien merchant seamen have deserted their ships in United States ports since the beginning of the war and now are being rounded up by the immigration and naturalization service.

Those who are found, the war shipping administration said recently, will be given the choice of returning to ships of their nationality or face deportation.

Mrs. W. A. Allday and son, Wm. Alvin of Rockdale were business visitors in Cameron on Saturday.

Bill Pate is resting comfortable following an operation in the Newton Memorial Hospital.
